FINANCING YOUR PROGRAM

At Cross-Cultural Solutions, we are committed to providing you with opportunities to make your international volunteer experience possible. We have brought forward opportunities with PayPal, and have partnered with Surv Credit to offer CCS volunteers financing options to fund your program contribution through a LendingUSA Application.

How can I receive financing for my CCS program?

CCS volunteers, or parents of teen volunteers, can apply for financing directly through the PayPal LendingUSA link on this page, and on the CCS enrollment page. Financing can be used toward your program contribution and airfare.

What are the payment terms for financing?

All CCS volunteers approved for financing will be eligible to receive 6 months with no interest. Interest rates after 6 months and payment terms will be determined based on your credit.

When do I receive my funds?

Following your approval of financing, you will receive the full amount to your bank account or PayPal account, typically within 1-3 business days. You can use these funds to pay your remaining CCS program contribution at <https://www.crossculturalsolutions.org/make-payment> and toward your airfare.

How quickly will a financing decision be made?

You will receive a decision on your financing online within seconds of submitting your one-page application.
