OREGON CITY — Clackamas Community College built a 16-point lead in the first half and went on to a 73-61 victory over Linn-Benton Community College in women’s basketball on Saturday.

The Cougars remain unbeaten in Northwest Athletic Association of Community Colleges South Division play with a 3-0 mark. The Roadrunners fall to 1-2 in the conference, 4-11 overall.

Despite the score, LBCC shot better from the field at 36.8 percent, compared to 33.3 percent for the Cougars.

Four Roadrunners reached double figures, led by Madeline Kiplinger’s 14 and Michelle Bromagem’s 13. Janelle Young and Janelle Land each scored 10.

On the boards, Bromagem finished with 13 while Samantha Reynolds grabbed 10 — six of which were on the offensive end.

Kiplinger had five assists and Reynolds came away with three steals.

LBCC will play host to Umpqua on Wednesday at 5:30 p.m.
